Presents a chronological narrative of world history from the earliest civilizations to the present.

Political, social, economic and cultural history (up to 1987) are woven together to provide a broad understanding of different civilizations. This resource book was written to correspond closely with the student text and contains lesson suggestions, worksheets, tests, a history writer's handbook and an answer key.

This book offers a distinct framework for understanding the global past through the study of origins, interactions, and adaptations. The authors examine the full range of human ingenuity over time and space in a comprehensive, even-handed, and critical fashion.

A textbook history of the world focusing on the development of various civilizations.

Uses four factors--energy capture per capita, organization, information technology and war-making capacity--to attempt to show which world regions were the most powerful throughout all of human history.
